ALPHABET FOR THE RELIGIOUS

By REV. GEORGE J. HAYE

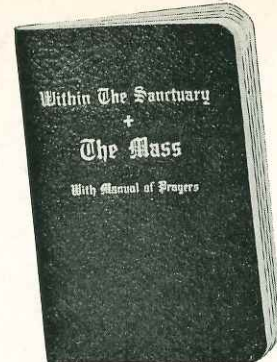

This little book attempts to cover the life of the religious from A to Z. Its contents are the result of five years' conferences to different religious as well as personal spiritual direction to other religious.

The chapter on "Direction" should be an eye-opener. The chapter on "Friendship" will dissipate many false notions on that subject. A more comprehensive view of the vow of poverty is found in "Given to God". Some chapters show the place of happiness and love in the religious life. The chapter on "Orthodoxy" will help to preserve balance in all things. The "Questionnaire" forms a complete examination of conscience. "Retreat Rules" are included to help religious get the most out of the annual retreat.

This little book may well serve as a compact meditation book and traveling companion for all religious, men and women. It is designed for those who desire closer intimacy with The Master.

64 Pages, Size: 3½x5⅜"

Here is a little prayer book—in verse form—that will teach the smaller child how to read, and at the same time, instill in him the love of God and His teachings. The verses are written in language and style especially for children just learning to read. The illustrations are cleverly drawn to convey the thought and meaning of the verse, which is printed in large clear type on the opposite page. Verses range from morning prayers, through a child's day; school; church—then Holy Mass and Communion. It covers Benediction and bed-time prayers; prayers for play-mates; and finally, prayers to Jesus, the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph.

No. C2440 — THE CHILD'S BOOK OF PRAYERS

by Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

Teaching little children their first prayers is a fascinating but awesome task for any teacher or parent. It is difficult to transmit to the child's mind the full implications of Catholic prayers. But if the memory of his first prayers is surrounded with beauty and charm, there will always be an association of beauty with prayer in the child's mind. In order to bring to those first prayers that subtle beauty which we all desire, the artwork in this book (which is in four delicate colors throughout) has been done with exquisite beauty that will delight any child. The prayer-text, which has been selected by Father Daniel A. Lord, S.J., is hand-lettered in large, readable letters throughout. A most valuable book for any parent or teacher and a great treasure in the hands of any child. Really, a very practical book where the principle of association is based on the latest and soundest pedagogical principles. For ages 4 to 8. Binding: Stiff board cover and paper jacket. Lithographed in full color. Size: 8x11 inches. (CM)

No. 2424 — THE GIFTS OF CHRISTMAS

by Father Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

A sturdy cardboard book, bound with plastic rings, that tells the story of the Real Gifts of Christmas, in an intriguing fashion that will hold the interest of the child. The entire book is lithographed in full color.

The beautiful cover illustrates the Nativity, flanked on either side by Church windows, one of which is cut through the cover.

As the cover opens, the third page automatically raises to show a full color folding representation of the Crib scene in a realistic setting.

On the page opposite, in simple language, is explained the reason for Gifts on Christmas.

Following, through Church doors, can be seen children receiving Holy Communion on Christmas Morning.

The Christmas scene the children know is shown on facing pages in the center of the book. A happy family is grouped around a Christmas Tree that raises from the center of the book as the page is opened.

On another page is given a depiction of Santa Claus, framed in a cut-out Chimney, together with an illustration of St. Nicholas and an explanation of how the modern Santa Claus received his name. Size 8½x9 inches. (HC)

NEW TESTAMENT — THE REVISED NEW TESTAMENT

This is the first revision of the English of our New Testament in almost 200 years. It has been prepared under the direction of the Episcopal Committee of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. The actual work was done by a large group of American, Canadian and English scholars who devoted five years to their task.

In itself an enormous achievement, the volume fills a long-felt need. It is a revision of the Challoner-Rheims text based on the Latin Vulgate, with the end in view of rendering the New Testament in our contemporary English language.

That it may be more easily read and understood, the text is arranged in paragraph form instead of verse by verse. The revised New Testament is printed in pleasant, legible type on a sturdy paper. The regular size is 5x7½ inches. It is available in a number of bindings, which will be found below.

OLD METHOD

WAX TAPERS and MATCHES at the Votive Stand are a POTENTIAL FIRE HAZARD.

They become SHORT and STRINGY and when ignited FLARE UP and cause a PANIC FEELING.

The searching for SHORT PIECES of tapers in the sand tray results in SOILED gloves or hands.

NEW LIGHTING STICKS

AT LAST . . . The ideal method for lighting Votive Candles now being used successfully by more than 500 churches. Particularly adaptable for Children.

Missale Romanum

EDITO JUXTA TYPICAM VATICANAM

U. S. A. LITURGICAL EDITION

Now produced in the U. S. A. by Highly Skilled American Craftsmen

Imprimatur of U. S. A. Archbishop

Edited by Experienced U. S. A. Liturgists

CONTAINS

The latest Masses for the Universal Church, complete and in their proper places: including the proprium for the U. S. A., Missae Pro Aliquibus Locis; Cantus Ad Libitum. All revised, up-to-date.

MECHANICAL FEATURES OF MISSALE ROMANUM

Size of type: The type face of generous size is characterized by a sturdiness, devoid of all mannerisms making for immediate visual recognition. Its simplicity of design, the spacing between characters, neither too little nor too wide, the well balanced heavy and light strokes in the up and down lines, and the solid wall of the face make for thorough visual comfort of the reader.

Print: The book is printed in two colors, red and black. A medium deep red characterizes the rubrics instead of the conventional orange, balancing more evenly with the solid blacks and above all giving the rubrics more legibility.
